JOURNAL

OFFICE OF LEGISLATIVE COUNSEL

Wednesday - 6 September 1972

Messrs. Jack Brady and Bob Boyer, House Foreign Affairs Committee staff. The planned debriefing of Messrs. Brady and Boyer was cut short due to a Committee deadline for later this afternoon for material for use by the House and Senate Democratic leadership on the events of yesterday in Munich. A followon meeting was scheduled for Tuesday, 12 September, at 2:00 p.m. in Room 2170 Rayburn House Office Building. Messrs. Brady and Boyer were complimentary about the Agency personnel and treatment they received in the field noting that in their opinion the overall narcotics handling by United States' agencies has improved in the last year since CIA has been more actively involved in the problem. See [redacted] Memorandum for the Record.

2. (Confidential - JGO) Mr. Robert Blum, Senate Foreign Relations Committee staff, visited Headquarters from 10:00 to 12:00 to begin study of the OSS files of activities in Indochina following World War II. Files were made available to him in one of the interview rooms adjoining the main reception room. Mr. Blum will return again tomorrow at 10:00 a.m. for further study of the files. [redacted] has been advised.

3. (Unclassified - PLC) A meeting was held with Bill Phillips, Jim Kronfeld, and Norm Cornish, staff members of the Foreign Operations and Government Information Subcommittee, House Government Operations Committee, to discuss the Agency's implementation of Executive Order 11652 on classification. I briefly described the Agency's procedures and the regulations issued implementing the Executive Order, and explained that the Agency's regulations were internal and could not be made available to the Committee. They understood and will accept as the Agency's unclassified regulations the procedures for the Agency's handling of outside requests for information as recently published in the Federal Register. We further agreed that a letter from the Agency as to the implementation of the Executive Order would not be necessary.

4. (Internal Use Only - LLM) Called Paul Woodard, Justice Department, to get a report on what the Department is doing on the Ervin bill rider. Woodard was unaware of the amendments that the Civil Service Commission had prepared as a fallback position in the event there was a setback on the issue of germaneness. I told Woodard that we were working on the assumption that the Department had greater leverage than other departments and agencies with the Judiciary Committee, that some of the most troublesome features of the legislation involve the Department's responsibility and for this reason we were particularly interested in knowing what their stand would be and the progress they are making. Woodard, explaining that he had been on leave for a time, promised to get back in touch as soon as he had anything to report.

5. (Unclassified - LLM) Called Charles Parker, in the Office of Management and Budget, and asked if there had been any progress in resolving the retirement funding issue since we were working up our annual legislation proposal for submission to OMB and would like to include the agreed upon formula if at all possible. Parker said final decision had not been made and recommended that we submit the old package with the old formula.

6. (Unclassified - LLM) Mrs. Edith Dischinger, in the office of Representative Bob Casey (D., Texas), called on behalf of an applicant who had drawn draft lottery 95 and asked if Agency employment would result in a deferment. I told her that Agency service did not satisfy service obligations and it had been the long-time policy of the Agency to keep its requests for deferments to an absolute minimum. Mrs. Dischinger appreciated the information but did not want to give me the name of the applicant.

7. (Unclassified - LLM) Called Tom Moyer, in the office of the General Counsel, Civil Service Commission, who told me that Frank Witham, in the Bureau of Policies and Standards, is in a position to be helpful in identifying Civil Service Commission proposed legislation which may be an appropriate vehicle for carrying legislation of special interest to the Agency.
